4. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY PROGRAM

a. POLICY. It shall be the policy of the Central Intelligence Agency to provide equal opportunity in employment for all persons, to prohibit discrimination in employment because of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin, and to promote the full realization of equal employment opportunity through a positive, continuing program. In administering this policy, the Agency shall comply with the applicable provisions of the Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972, Executive Order 11478 of August 6, 1969, and the applicable regulations of the Civil Service Commission, but shall have due regard for the statutory responsibilities of the Director of Central Intelligence as set forth in the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended. A positive, continuing program goes beyond nondiscrimination and is designed to promote equal opportunity in every aspect of Agency personnel policy and practice in the employment, development, advancement, use, and treatment of employees and to ensure that an environment exists within the Agency wherein this program can be carried out.

b. RESPONSIBILITIES

- (1) The Director of Central Intelligence shall exercise personal leadership in establishing, maintaining, and carrying out the Agency's equal employment opportunity program. The Director of Central Intelligence shall designate a Director of Equal Employment Opportunity, who shall be under his immediate supervision for all matters pertaining to the Agency's equal employment opportunity program. There is hereby delegated to the Director of Equal Employment Opportunity the authority necessary to implement the equal employment opportunity program within the Agency.
- (2) The Director of Central Intelligence shall designate as many Equal Employment Opportunity Officers, Equal Employment Opportunity Counselors, and Federal Woman's Program Coordinators as may be necessary to assist the Director of Equal Employment Opportunity to carry out the equal employment opportunity program within the Agency.
